

THE PROBLEM SOLVERS: The Litigator

If you ask around the legal community for the toughest lawyers in town, Judd Burstein will always make the list. It is no surprise then that people such as Carl Icahn, Edward S. Gordon, and Bob Arum have turned to Burstein to represent them. Known for his relentless efforts on behalf of clients, he is also highly regarded by the judiciary. One federal judge lauded Burstein for his thorough preparation of cases and careful analysis of difficult legal issues. But perhaps the best comment on Burstein, who has represented numerous champion boxers, comes from one of his opponents: Don King. During one proceeding, the high-haired promoter referred to Burstein as an "insidious insect," who the world regards as "the man who shot Liberty Valance." You can't buy higher praise.

Judd Burstein